

What is Editor Choice and what services do you offer?

Editor Choice is a platform designed to cater to the needs of editors in the mobile and PC community. Our main purpose is to provide a centralised platform where editors can stay updated with the latest editing apps available in the market. We curate a comprehensive list of the most widely used apps by professional editors, making it convenient for new editors to find and access the best tools without any hassle. Whether you're a beginner or an experienced editor, Editor Choice strives to be your go-to resource for discovering and exploring the top editing apps in the industry.

Who is the creator behind Editor Choice?

Editor Choice is the brainchild of Naman Jain, also known as Nasu. Naman is a computer science student with a passion for various creative pursuits, including blender animation, graphic design, and photo manipulation. He is the owner of Nasu Animator YouTube channel and Nasu Studios. With his expertise in the field, Naman recognized the need for a platform dedicated to editors and their requirements. Thus, Editor Choice was born.

Naman's diverse background, coupled with his freelancing work for Indian and international YouTubers, and his love for gaming, particularly Minecraft, brings a unique perspective and understanding to the curation of the apps and services offered on Editor Choice.

Is Editor Choice a part of Nasu Studios?

Yes, Editor Choice is a proud subsidiary and kid brand of Nasu Studios. Nasu Studios, under the creative direction of Naman Jain (Nasu), encompasses various creative endeavours, including animation, graphic design, and content creation. Editor Choice was established as part of Nasu Studios' commitment to supporting creators and their unique needs.

What makes Editor Choice different from other editing platforms?

Unlike editing platforms that focus solely on providing editing tools, Editor Choice offers a curated selection of information and insights about editors, their preferred apps, software, and even music choices. It's a platform where editors can connect, discover new tools, and gain inspiration from the choices made by their fellow editors.

Are the apps listed in Editor Choice suitable for both mobile and PC editors?

Yes, Editor Choice caters to both mobile and PC editors. The website features a wide range of apps and software specifically selected for each platform. We understand that the editing needs and preferences can vary depending on whether someone is using a mobile device or a PC. Therefore, we have dedicated pages for mobile editors and PC editors, making it easy to navigate and find the most suitable apps and software for each platform. Whether you edit on your mobile device or on a PC, Editor Choice strives to provide a comprehensive selection of tools to enhance your editing experience.

How often is the app list updated on Editor Choice?

At Editor Choice, we strive to keep our app list updated regularly to ensure that editors have access to the latest and most relevant tools. Generally, we update the app list approximately every 15-20 days, ensuring that we include newly released apps and software that can enhance the editing process. Additionally, if a user reaches out to us through DMs or other channels to suggest an app, we prioritise their request and aim to update the list as quickly as possible, sometimes within a matter of hours. Our commitment is to provide editors with up-to-date recommendations and continuously improve the selection of apps and software available on Editor Choice.

Can I suggest an app to be included in the Editor Choice app list?

Yes, absolutely! We welcome app suggestions from our users and value their input in expanding our app list. If you come across an app that you believe would be useful for other editors, you can reach out to us through various channels. You can contact us via phone calls, email, or through the 'Contact Us' page on our website. Additionally, we have a Discord server where you can connect with us and share your app suggestions. Once we receive your suggestion, our team will carefully evaluate the app and its suitability for our community of editors. If the app aligns with our criteria, we will make every effort to list it on Editor Choice in a short amount of time. We greatly appreciate your contribution to making our app list comprehensive and valuable for all editors.

Are the apps on Editor Choice free to use?

At Editor Choice, we provide a curated selection of apps for editors; however, it's important to note that we don't directly offer the subscriptions or licences for these apps or software. The apps listed on our website can include both free and paid options. We strive to provide information about various apps, including their features, pricing, and availability. If you're interested in downloading or acquiring any specific app, we recommend reaching out to us through our Discord server or contacting us via other available channels. Our team will be happy to guide you and provide further details on how to access and use the apps listed on Editor Choice.

How can I download the apps listed on Editor Choice?

To download the apps listed on Editor Choice, you can click on the respective app and you will be redirected to the official website or app store where you can obtain the app. For free apps, you will generally find a direct download link or instructions on how to download it from the official source.
